

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Two Stake Events on the Card at Gravesend.

Counter Tenor Has a Chance to Show His Speed.

"EVENING WORLD" SELECTIONS.

First Race—Kentigerna, Annie Bishop, Mary Stone.
Second Race—Comanche, Blitzen, Lowlander.
Third Race—Euraia, Castanet, Roundelay.
Fourth Race—Slight of Hand, Assigner, Tom Tough.
Fifth Race—Counter Tenor, The Coon, Hollywood.
Sixth Race—Gold Dollar, Addie, Chattanooga.

There are two stakes on the card at Gravesend to-day, and both should furnish excellent racing. In the Amazon, an event for fillies two years old at half a mile, Euraia, the fast daughter of Hanover, and Wanda, owned by Leigh & Rose, will meet Castanet, Roundelay, High Point Belle and other highly tried fillies in the East. There should be hotly contested.

The Prokness Stakes, for three-year-olds, brings together Assigner, Potentate, Enfield, Flirt, Str Knight, Ascol, Slight of Hand and some other good ones, at a mile and a sixteenth. In the second race, with twenty entries, three-year-olds will contend in the opening event, a dash of a mile and a sixteenth. Annie Bishop, Madrid, Selena D., Derfargilla, Kentigerna and Clementina are among the favorites.

In the second race, a handicap at a mile and a furlong, Comanche, Lowlander, Blitzen, and other good ones will meet. The third race, a dash of five furlongs, will give the public a chance to see Col. Huppert's crack and other good ones. He meets a poor lot and should win hands down.

The last race is a selling affair, at six furlongs, with twenty entries. There are some fast ones in the lot and a good race will be made. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selection are as follows:

First Race—Amazon Stakes, for fillies two years old, $50 each, with $1,000 added, for three-year-olds and upwards, one mile and a sixteenth.

IS NELLE THE BURGLAR?

Officials Trying to Fasten Jersey Depot Robberies Upon Her.

Price, Whom She Accused, Says She Threatened to Be Revenged.

HACKENSACK, N. J., May 17.—Nelle Ackerman, the pretty twenty-year-old girl who is locked up in the Hackensack Jail, charged with burglarizing the N. J. and N. Y. Railroad station at Fairmount, N. J., late Sunday night, or early Monday morning, has given the Bergen County Jail a rather difficult problem to solve.

The girl is allowed to see no one except the proprietor of the county. The jail officials refused to admit reporters. The girl is allowed to see no one except the proprietor of the county. The jail officials refused to admit reporters.

Chief Marshal Charles C. Townsend, who arrested Miss Ackerman, and Constable Haring, of Hackensack, are working to connect the girl with the several railroad depot burglaries which have occurred within the last few months.

Chief Haring is working on a clue, which, he says, may lead to the arrest of a well-known Hackensack character, who has been in the county for some time. The girl is allowed to see no one except the proprietor of the county. The jail officials refused to admit reporters.

Justice of the Peace Thomas H. Cunningham, before whom the girl was taken after her arrest, said today that he was quite sure that the girl was the burglar. The girl is allowed to see no one except the proprietor of the county. The jail officials refused to admit reporters.

When the man got up, Miss Ackerman hid on the seat, a box. She opened it and found that it contained the railroad tickets. The girl is allowed to see no one except the proprietor of the county. The jail officials refused to admit reporters.

Price is favorably known in Hackensack, and bears a good reputation in the county. The girl is allowed to see no one except the proprietor of the county. The jail officials refused to admit reporters.

JERSEY CITY'S WILE WATER.

It Is Filthy and Unfit for Drinking or Washing.

Residents of Marion Walk Great Distances to a Spring.

An "Evening World" reporter found Gross Brook, of Towell and St. Paul's avenues, Jersey City, washing his hands in Rhine wine this morning. In response to the caller's expression of astonishment, Mr. Brock held up a pop-bottle filled with water, only there was a quarter of an inch of mud in the bottom of the bottle.

"That is the sort of water Jersey City provides us for laundry, kitchen and table use," said he. "I filled that bottle from the faucet after the water had been running all night."
